Mt. Zion. FORM OF PROPOSAL, GUARANTER, AND CERTIFICATE

The undersigned—, whose poet office address is—, county of—, State of —, proposes to convey the mails of the United States, from July 1, 1866, to June 20, 1870, on reute No.—, between—and—, under the advertisement of the Postmaster General, dated October 21, 1865, with "celerity, certainty, and security," for the annual sum of—dellars.

This proposal is made with full knowledge of the distance of the route, the weight of the mail to be corried, and all other particulars in reference to the route and service, and also after careful examination of the lunes and instructione attached to the advertisement.

Dated (Signed.) GUABANTEE.

The undersigned, residing at—, State of—, undertake that, if the foregoing bid for carrying the mail on route No.—— be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder shall, prior to the lat day of July, 1866, enter into the required obligation or contract to perform the service proposed, with good and sufficient sureties.

This was do understanding distinctly the obligations and liabilities assumed by guarantors under the 27th section of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1836.

Dated (Signed by two guarantors.) CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, postmaster at ___, State of ___, certifies, under use care of offices, that he is acquainted with the above guarantors, and anows them to be men of property, and able o make good their guarantee. The above certificate must have affixed to it a five-cent revenue stamp, cancelled, as the law requires. INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS AND POST-

MASTERS; Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the son-Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the son-tracts to the extent the Department may desm proper.

1. Beven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but on railroad and steamboat routes there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail pouches.

2. On railroad and steamboat lines, and other routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Post Office Department, also post office blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

2. On railroad and steamboat lines the route agents of the department are to be conveyed without extra charge of the agents a commodious car, or spartment in the centre of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and adapted to the convenient separation and due security of the main, is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the department.

Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from and deliver it into the post offices at the beginning and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a station or landing. Proposals may be submitted by the companies for the performance of all other side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing. or landing.

There will be "way-bills" prepared by postmasters, or other agents of the department, to accompany the mails conveyed on railroads and steamers, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On other principal routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way-bills forwarded; the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mails. .

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for 4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions, not satisfactorily explained, three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any pertion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerted in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be 6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly of Fines will be imposed, unless the centificates of postmasters or and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time: for neglecting to take the mail from, or deliver it into, a post office; for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for re-10234 From Milan Depot to Enterprise, 4 miles and back, peated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for refuning an express as aforessid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable mat-ter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rula increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time he not abridged. He may also order an increase of speed, allowing, within the restrictions of the law, a pro rate increase of pay for the additional stock or carriers if any. The contractor may, however, in the case of increase of speech, relicquish the contract, by giving prompt notice to the department that he prefers doing so to carrying the order into effect. The Postmaster General may also discontinue or curtail the service, in whole or in part, in order to place on the route a greater degree of service, or whenever the public interest, in his judgment, shall require such inscontinuance or curtailment for any other cause; he allowing as a full indemnity to contractor one month's extra pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pre rate compensation for the amount of service retained and continued.

9. Payments will be made by collections from or drafts an postmanters, or otherwise, after the extraction of each age. postmasters, or otherwise, after the expiration of each quar-ter—say, in November, February, May, and August.

10. The distances are given according to the best information; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than addertised, if the points to be supplied are correctly stated. Bidders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads bills, strange, as and all toll before. also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c., and all toil bridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expenses may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered; nor for alleged mistakes or misaporehension as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontinued, or other obstructions increasing distance, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be disited without extra pay, if the distance be not 11. Bidders are cantioned to mail their proposals in time to reach the department by the day and hour named, (8 p. m., March 29, 1868;) for bids received after that time will not be considered in competition with a bid of reasonable amount received in time. Neither can bids be considered which are without the guarantee required by law and a certificate of the

without the guarantee.

12. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisement, and then, if they desire, separately for different service; and if the regular bid be the lowest offered for the advertised service, the other propositions may be considered.

13. There should be but one route bid for in a proposal.— Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum for two or more routes") are forbidden by law, and cannot be con-14. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address,) and those of each member of a firm where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed proposals furnished by the department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdrawal of a bidder or guar-anter will be allowed unless the withdrawal is dated and received before the last day for receiving proposals. Each bid must be guarranteed by two responsible persons.— The bid and guarantee should be signed plainly with the full The bid and guarantee should be signed plainly with the full name of each purson.

The department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders.

16. The bids should be scaled, superscribed "Mail Proposals, State of Tennessee," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office," and sent by mad, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not enclose proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the department by or before the let day of July, 1866; but the survice must be begun on that day, or on the mail day next after it.

must be begun on that day, or on the mail day next after it, whether the contracts be executed or not.

Transfers of contracts, or of interest in contracts, are forbidden by law, and consequently cannot be allowed. Bidders will therefore take notice that they will be expected to perform the service accepted to them through the whole term of
